NOTICE TO CITY SUBSCRIBERS.
The Daily Democrat, delivered by carles throughout the city, is at the rate of twenty-five cents per week, including the Sunday paper.

Important Notice.

Owing to the increased expense of every article used in the printing business, and an advance price of twenty-five per cent on the expense of composition, we are compelled to increase the cost of the Daily Democrat. Hereafter the Daily, by will, be one dollar per month, or six dollars for six months, ten dollars per year, always in advance.

CITY NEWS.

OUR AGENTS.—Messrs. Morris & Bro., Lexington, and Mr. J. D. Pollard, Frankfort, are our agents. The Daily Democrat can be had at either of the above news depots every morning.

R. H. Singleton, Nashville, Tenn., has the Louisville Democrat and sells it at five cents per copy.

Hon. James Guthrie Elected Senator.

The Legislature went into joint session yesterday for the election of United States Senator. The contest was narrowed down to a vote between Hon. James Guthrie and Major General Rosecrans. On the first ballot Mr. Guthrie received six votes and General Rosecrans five—some scattering votes cast.

Mr. Guthrie having received the highest number was declared duly elected Senator for six years from the 4th of March next. He thus becomes the successor of Hon. L. W. Powell, whose term expires on the 4th of March.

Two peace warrants were disposed of.

Supposed Murder—Mysterious Affair.

On Monday night about 12 o'clock five men, supposed to be soldiers, came running toward the corner of Second and Market streets,似乎 to be in pursuit of some one. A lad passing discovered a man standing in the recess of the doorway on Second street, in the rear of Mr. Neely's drug store, and exclaimed, "here he is," at which the man started to run across the street, when one of the party shot and the man fell. They struck a light in a lantern and went up to the fallen man. One of them exclaimed, "that's a d—d good shot." The party then picked up the man and bore him away with them in the midst of the storm of that night. What became of them or who were the parties is still a matter of mystery. A man was shot and killed perhaps, but by whom and for what is not known. The authorities should investigate this mysterious affair.

A CUTTING AFFAIR.—W. Richards, who resides on Green street, between Second and Third streets, got into an alteration at his own house with Richard Burks, and, seizing a butcher knife, cut Burks across the left temple, striking an artery, from which he bled profusely. Dr. Brady was called and dressed the wound. Burks is no longer severely wounded. The little fellow came home exultant.

INTERNATIONAL FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY. We direct the attention of our readers to the statement of the condition of this company, of which Robert Atwood is the agent in our city. The condition of this company points it as one of the safest and best for those desiring to effect insurance.

FIRE.—The alarm of fire yesterday at noon was caused by the burning of a bed in the residence of Capt. Rudd, on Jefferson street, below Second. A negro girl was suspicious as having set it on fire. She was arrested by Officer Gilmore.

FEAT AT COST.—W. Wm. F. O'Brien, on Main street, opposite the Buck of Kentucky, offers a fine assortment of ladies furs at cost. His stock embraces complete sets of mink, sash, French capes and water mink, and other varieties. Give him a call.

If any patron of the Democrat fail to receive the paper in good season in the morning, we trust they will inform us, that we may at once remedy the neglect.

There will be a meeting of the lady managers of the Refugee Fair to-morrow afternoon, at 3 o'clock, in the Masonic Temple. Let all be in attendance.

Thanks to J. G. Dugay, Express messenger, for a file of Nashville papers of yesterday.

THE GREAT CONFLAGRATION.

The Galt House in Ruins.

Immense Destruction of Property.

LOSS OF LIFE!

LOSS $650,000!

The great conflagration which occurred yesterday is one of the most destructive that has visited our city for a number of years, with the exception of the great fire on Main street on the 1st of July last. The fire originated in the rear of the Galt House, in a dummy used for the purpose of raising coal from the cellar to each of the floors above, and a strong draft caused the flames to ascend and increase in fury as they did so. On each of the floors were passages extending from the front to the rear of the building, and as the flames reached each floor they ran through the passages, so that when the fire was discovered it was on three floors at the same time. The fire occurred between 12 and 1 o'clock, so that the large number of guests were all asleep. The alarm was at once given by persons running through the hotel knocking at the doors, and shouting "fire! fire!" at the top of their voices. The guests thus aroused out of a sound slumber jumped from their beds, and a scene which baffles description ensued. Men, women and children could be seen running in all directions, mothers anxiously inquiring for their children, who had been lost in the confusion. Children running to and fro in search of their parents, and friends anxiously inquiring for each other. The alarm was so sudden and the fire had gained such headway, that those who escaped had barely time to do so with their lives, loosing all their clothing, valuable and other articles. The fire was a very cold one, the pavements and streets being covered with ice, and we noticed many tripping along in search of other quarters in their bare feet. The sight was a sorrowful one, and one that will long be remembered by all who have witnessed it. As the prospects for fair weather is good, we expect to see the houses crowded every night, in fact, more excellent troops deserve to be liberally paraded, as they are undoubtedly the best in the country. Tonight they make an entire change in their programs, and offer one of the best bills ever gotten up. Let the house be crowded, and we assure all who go, that they will be delightedly entertained. Arlington will there be.

VARIETIES.—Ever since this new and spacious place of amusement has been opened, the Ryan & Calhoun minstrels have by their choice entertainments won for it a popularity of which it can never be robbed. A number of people are apt to suppose that because it is the Varieties, and a permanent place of amusement, that it is not a first-class or fashionable place to visit. This is a mistaken idea of theirs, for there is not a nearer place to visit, where better order is kept, where a better entertainment and more satisfaction is given. In the city. Their music, songs, dances, banquets and jokes are all very duc, and the performers know exactly how to get them to the entire satisfaction of all who pay them a visit. Go to-night and you can satisfy yourself.

This terrible conflagration, which did such great destruction to property, and which was the cause of two if not six persons losing their lives by that most horrible of all deaths, burning, is ascribed to the proprietor of the house to have been the work of incendiaries, but by some it is thought to have originated from the carelessness of the person who attended to the dummy.

JEFFERSON CIRCUIT COURT.

With an insurance of $281,600, which makes the loss over and above the insurance $35,400. In addition to the above there was fully $100,000 worth of private property destroyed, which will swell the total to $657,000.

The insurance is divided between the different insurance companies as follows:

	$28,000

The loss of the Galt House will be severely felt by our citizens, and is one of the worst calamities that could have befallen us.

By this disastrous conflagration one hundred and fifty persons, men, women and children are thrown out of employment. It affords us much pleasure to be able to state that the company will commence at once having the building cleared away, and that they will erect where once stood the Galt House—which was known all over the country—a magnificent hotel. We are informed that the work to attend to is immediately.

NEW YORK, Jan. 10.—The Georgia Recorder says the Georgia Legislature will be re-assembled as soon as the Six hours can be re-arranged.

The Atlanta Journal says it is a journey after the reassembling of the session, proposed for the support of fugitive families of slaves, and clothing for the slaves who are prisoners, and for the relief of the treasury.

The two Houses did not agree upon a date for the reassembling, but the Senate was in favor of a session on the 1st, while the House insisted on a date on the 1st, resolutions for reassembling were passed.

The Atlanta Journal says the 1st cavalry, the 1st Georgia, the 1st Virginia, where it says the people generally are disloyal, and the mountain passes are infested with bushwhackers and swamp dragons. It is a very wild, grassy country, and shows signs of great desolation. They secured five hundred head, and undoubtedly made the people still more disloyal.

NEW YORK, Jan. 11.

A Washington chapter says a certain Fessenden has asked a re-injunction of the law so as to allow the issuance of two million dollars more of 7-30 bonds.

The role on the Constitutional amendment will be disposed of several days to follow.

The Herald's Washington dispatch says: "After some discussion, he has taken a prominent part in peace, or even peace during the last election, and whose personal relations with the President have been very friendly, has gone to Richmond, and will probably be heard of there soon."

MONTREAL, Jan. 10.

In the case of the St. Albans raiders, a judge overruled the application made in Estevan by the defense.

The thirty days' delay which was applied for to allow the prisoners to receive their freedom had been ruled by the Circuit court. The case will be decided to-morrow.

PORTLAND, ME., Jan. 11.

The steamer Maravies, from Liverpool and London, arrived on the 30th, arriving here yesterday. Commercial news unimportant to the trades.

General Dix's order to pursue the rebel raiders to Canada met much opposition. The leading journals hope it will not be acted on, at least for a time.

Colonel J. D. Clegg, of Boston, quoted from a New York paper, "A regular march since the Asia steamship Providence, late last month, has been made by the rebels to Canada, via the Hudson River, the St. Lawrence, and the Great Lakes."

The paper general says: "An expedition of 1,000 men, with a force of 100,000, is now in Canada, and is expected to be followed by another force of 100,000."

The paper general says: "The rebels have been given orders to burn all the towns in Canada, and to make the people still more disloyal."
